

Town of Pittsford Hires New Recreation and Economic Development Director

Lizbeth (Liz) Alvarado of Brandon has been hired as the new recreation and economic development director for the Town of Pittsford. Liz brings years of experience in management roles as well as an active volunteer for many youth programs through the years. This includes past PTO President for the Neshobe Elementary School and former Girl Scout Troop leader. She is still currently a volunteer for Brandon recreation, while supporting her daughter's athletic pursuits. Liz comes highly recommended as a person who has an attention to detail, is fearless, determined, and has an upbeat attitude. The Town of Pittsford is excited to have Liz as part of our staff!
