OLD BUSINESS

Caverly Preschool Discussion:

Brett Mullins stated that the children should not suffer through the transition and they would like to make it a seamless transition to Lothrop. Mr. Mullins stated that at a recent meeting, the board action was to affirm previous meeting decisions from January 6, 2026 through February 17, 2026 and the stance remains. Chair Malay stated that the board violated Open Meeting Laws and she sent a letter and this was discussed in Executive Session and the board did not feel that they violated any laws. The school district attorney asked the board to rescind and revote and this did not occur. D. Adams inquired the reasoning. Mr. Mullins stated that the facility is in decent shape, however, the transition would allow the students more services, such as not having to deliver lunches across town, the nurse would be available, there would be music classes, and a variety of other opportunities for the students. Kathryn Lasono-Lucia spoke that she has a child on an IEP and has services at Caverly. Mr. Mullins stated that he is also a parent of a special education child who has services at Caverly, however, there are positions that are being discontinued.
